

WINE

Our unlabelled wines are a selection of small and unique batches sourced from the Cape's finest winemakers. These limited editions of rare gems have never seen a store shelf and cannot be found in other restaurants. They are featured on our wine list for their drinkability, distinction and value, we hope you will enjoy! In order to guide you we have indicate the wines development, fruit profile, overall flavour, body and texture. If you are feeling adventurous you can order based on the description, otherwise you are more than welcome to visit the bar and taste any of the wines on offer before you make your choice. You will note that the bottles have no estate labelling and are identified only by their lot numbers so that you can appreciate the wine for what is on the inside rather than the outside of the bottle. These lot numbers do provide a degree of insight into the wine, with the first two digits referring to the year that the wine was bottled (e.g. 17 for 2017), and the three last digits referring to the day of the year.

SOMMELIER'S CELLAR

Since Hoghouse began we have secretly been tucking away small batches of some of our favorite wines released every year, into our temperature controlled maturation cellar allowing for a slow and gentle maturation. As these wines slowly evolve towards their peak drinkability, we release them onto our wine list. The wines listed below will be sold out at their respective winery since long and most of them will have been consumed way before they reached the current stage of deliciousness.
